- You have an open and curious attitude
- You work in an organized and efficient manner

What do we offer?

- Access to our network in Rotterdam, consisting of more than one hundred local makers/artists and cultural institutions
- Opportunity to develop and shape your own program

Who are we?

Oud House is a neighborhood-focused exhibition space that offers makers and artists a place to present their work. The space was founded by architects and exhibition designers Yang Bai and Lennart Arpots, and in just a year and a half a large community has formed around it. The neighborhood is currently undergoing change: with the upcoming closure of the Schieblok and Zoho, many new makers are moving into the area in search of affordable living and working spaces. Oud House aims to be a landing base for this growing creative community.

The space is open on Fridays, Saturdays, and Sundays, hosting monthly rotating exhibitions combined with vintage clothing and affordable coffee. Oud House also participates in local festivals such as Go West Delfshaven and Architecture Month. Due to the growing enthusiasm for Oud House's work, many external requests are coming in, and the team is looking to expand.
